THE 2020/21 ARTISTIC INSTIGATORS

As NYTW contemplated making work in this time of social distancing, we knew that the artists in our midst would lead the way. In June, we reached out to 27 artists in our community with an open-ended provocation and invitation from Artistic Director James C. Nicola. What follows is part of the prompt that sparked the 2020/21 Artistic Instigator season.

New York Theatre Workshop exists to provide its community a richer, deeper understanding of what it means to live and breathe on this earth right now, and to comprehend how each of our individual experiences interconnects with the others who occupy the world alongside us. We do this by gathering together in a room, at an appointed time, to observe and participate in the ritual re-enactment, by the artists we believe in, of narratives that resonate and illuminate.

COVID-19 has denied us access to the most fundamental parts of this equation: the gathering together for an artistic communion.

But this fact does not eliminate the need we all have for ritual, for revelation, for imagery, for insight. In fact, the isolation, anger and grief have made the need that much more imperative.

With this, the questions for NYTW become: how do we support the artists in continuing to create and articulate? And how do we bring the results to the larger community so desperately in need of inspiration, innovation and healing?

We don't have the answers to what these new forms may be. But we are confident that artists might know HOW to find the answers. To find NEW answers, for changing times and circumstances.

So.

This is an act of provocation on our part. Our intention is to unleash your imaginations and assist you in the conjuring of new ways of providing the sustenance and adventure that our world demands of us.

As we contemplate the year ahead, there are so many more unknowns than there are certainties. We're hoping that you can seize this moment of insecurity and turn it around—to repurpose the lack of structure to be a moment of unheard of freedom and opportunity. We challenge you to think wide, and deep, and to go way out on limbs.

MAKE ART HAPPEN

Each year, New York Theatre Workshop supports nearly 2,000 artists through work both on and off stage. None of this would be possible without our dedicated donors. Their generous support of our artists, audience and community is what helps bring vibrant programs and productions to life.

REPEAT DEFENDERS

The Society of Repeat Defenders is made up of a committed and passionate group of donors who make annual gifts of $1,500 or more! Repeat Defenders have access to an intimate and engaged relationship with NYTW through exclusive benefits including special acknowledgment in our programs. Most importantly, Repeat Defenders get the satisfaction of knowing that their efforts are helping us push the boundaries of what theatre can be and what it can do.

4TH STREET BAR ASSOCIATION

The 4th Street Bar Association provides the best access to theatre for young supporters. With organized 4SBA nights, members take advantage of exciting social and cultural experiences while supporting NYTW. Access is available at a variety of levels, providing numerous benefits including tickets and invitations to pre and post-show parties.

SEE MORE ONLINE

Since April 2020, we've been offering a robust lineup of FREE classes and conversations to sustain a connection with you—our community. If you missed any of these events or want to go back for a second viewing, check out the online archive at NYTW.org or Youtube.com/NYTheatreWorkshop79

MASTERCLASSES

Go in depth with a master artist to study directing, acting, playwriting, design, teaching theatre online, cabaret performance, and more!

FIRESIDE CHATS

Informal conversations with some of the incredible artists in our community.

JAM SESSIONS

We know firsthand the joy of hearing music fill the theatre, so we asked some friends to take over our social media channels to bring some music to your homes.

VIRTUALLY NEIGHBORS

Whether you're feeling lonely and isolated or you just have some extra time on your hands, we'd love to introduce you to someone else in the community who might also be looking for a little virtual connection.

IN GOOD COMPANY

The belief in people coming together and being moved by a shared experience is central to what we love about the theatre; it occurred to us that joining in the preparation and enjoyment of a meal touches on the same emotional impulses—to reach, to connect, to inspire. Find recipe inspiration and more!

INTERESTED IN MORE?

JOIN TODAY!

We've reconceived NYTW memberships this year in response to the physical limitations and financial challenges that continue to impact our community.

From low monthly rates to a variety of levels, we're offering a range of options for members who are unsure when and how often they'll feel ready to return to the theatre-vids who long for the sense of community and the thrill of a new artistic adventure.

LEVEL 1: Pick & Choose

For $120/year or $13/month, you choose the events you'd like to see and we'll hook you up with a discount on one ticket per event.

REAL TALK: Unsure when and how often you'll feel ready to return, but still want to experience some of the season while supporting artists in creating new work? This is the package for you!

LEVEL 2: See It All

For $240/year or $26/month, you'll get one admission, free of charge, for all virtual and in-person events

REAL TALK: This is your all-access pass to experience the entire season. There's so much that's out of your control right now, but a season membership gives you something to look forward to—a front-row seat for our greatest artistic experiment yet!

LEVEL 3: Double or Nothing

For $600/year or $60/month, you'll get two admissions, free of charge, for all virtual and in-person events. Your membership includes a $120 tax-deductible contribution which further supports the Artistic Instigators this season. As a thank you, we'll send you a few VIP invitations over the course of the season to take you behind the scenes.

REAL TALK: This is an all-access pass for two people for the entire season. Whether you're sheltering together or separately, you'll book your virtual or in-person event tickets via a single account, so there's only one password to remember!

Join today at NYTW.org. Not sure which package is right for you this year? Contact Justin at JustinJ@nytw.org or call 646-793-3215.

MEET THE ARTISTIC INSTIGATORS

While the timeline for resuming in-person performances in New York City remains uncertain, these extraordinary artists are imagining work in our present moment that creates community within the given circumstances of social distancing, celebrates the liveness that is inherent in a theatrical experience, and examines the relationship between theatre, distance and technology.

While the Artistic Instigators are supported in their exploration of form and content, audiences will be invited to experience the evolution of the work through work-in-process sharings and behind-the-scenes conversations with artists.

We're asking audiences to take a leap. And what we promise in return is a front-row seat to the unfolding of this experiment—and that the definition of a "front-row seat" will shift throughout the year.
